

ProOrtho
Job Description
MRI Receptionist

JOB DESCRIPTION: MRI Receptionist, non-exempt position

REPORTS TO: Reception Supervisor

JOB SUMMARY: The role of the MRI Receptionist is to act as a liaison for patient appointments, gathering and inputting registration information into NextGen software, and working in a team environment to perform front office support duties. This includes booking appointments, greeting patients, inbound and outbound phone calls, processing necessary information to support that activity and triaging with physicians and medical assistants on acute scheduling problems.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Essential qualities necessary include, but are not limited to:

- Patient and pleasant personality; works well with a variety of people
- Detail oriented
- Team player
- Ability to work independently, with little supervision
- Interfaces well with staff and physicians
- Professional demeanor
- Pleasant and friendly tone of voice

JOB RESPONSIBILITIES:

1. Schedule appointments via telephone and in person
2. Check in/register patients, verify information on established patients, and update patient information in computer
3. Answer patient calls and direct appropriately.
4. Manage, track and call incoming referrals
5. Facilitate flow of patients by coordinating with MRI Technician
6. Accomplish other front office tasks such as records filing, faxing, opening mail, etc.
7. Complete duties as directed by supervisor.
8. Assist other personnel as directed by department lead or Reception Supervisor

Job Specifications

Education/Experience

- High School education
- 1-2 years relevant experience in public contact
- Minimum one year Medical Reception experience (desired)

Skills/Abilities

- Problem solving skills
- Skill in using a computer
- Ability to type/data entry
- Ability to remove oneself personally from given situations, remaining objective
- Ability to exhibit cooperation, flexibility, and provide assistance when interfacing with patients, physician and staff
- Ability to multi-task
- Skill in organizing and reporting information that is accurate and complete
- Understanding of the need for and evidence of consistent respect for confidentiality
- Ability to maintain composure in stressful situations
- Skill in establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with all staff
- Ability to prepare records in accordance with detailed instructions
- Ability to communicate clearly
- Ability to work in a team environment
- Consistency and timeliness in attendance

Please email resumes & cover letters to ProOrthoJobs@proliancesurgeons.com

- Please use "MRI Receptionist Position" in the subject line

We regret we are not in a position to personally respond to all applicants.